

Culturally Appropriate Refugee and Immigration Interpreter Services and Training

Objectives include:

- ❖ Explain why cultural competency matters in healthcare and social services encounters
- ❖ Explore cultural differences in lifestyle, family life and healthcare
- ❖ Identify strategies to enhance communication with increasingly diverse populations

Sponsored by the Virginia Rehabilitation Association

Presenter

*Ms. Rosemary Rodriguez, Interpreter Services/Training Manager
Refugee and Immigration Services
Catholic Diocese of Richmond*

April 10, 2008
10:00 – 3:00

Registration to begin at 9:30
Lunch on your own

VISSTA Richmond Area Training Center
Forest Office Park
1604 Santa Rosa Road , 2nd Floor
Richmond, VA 23229
804-662-7470

CE's for LPC's, MFT's, Substance Abuse Counselors, Nurse's and Physicians are available

CRC Credits provided

*Please register in advance! To request accommodations and/or register contact
Samantha Ruppert (804) 662-7183 or email
Samantha.ruppert@drs.virginia.gov
www.vra.org*

Cost for VRA members
$25.00

Cost for non Members
$35.00

